PARIS, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1906.

NUMBER 44

WELCOME! WELCOME!

Most Gallant Sir Knights and Fair Ladies.

The Fifty-ninth Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Kentucky will be on tomorrow morning in this city in all its glory. Between 1,500 and 2,000 gallant Knights and fair ladies will be here. The city in gala attire in honor of the occasion. The city will be turned over to these visitors and everything done to make their stay a pleasant one. We want to be among the first to give these guests a hearty welcome to our city, our homes are open to you, anything you desire you shall have, only make your wants known and it will only be our pleasure to serve you.

We welcome you in behalf of the press, we welcome you in behalf of the city officials, we welcome you in behalf of our county officials, we welcome you in behalf of our citizens of Paris and Bourbon county. May your stay in Paris be one long to be remembered.

Insure with W. O. Hinton. He has the right kind of insurance.

Dr. McCormick Talks on Doctors.

Dr. J. N. McCormick, of Bowling Green, Secretary of the Kentucky State Board of Health, delivered a most interesting lecture at the Court House Saturday night on the great good the members of the medical profession have accomplished. Dr. McCormick pointed out that the jealousies which formerly were so evident in medical circles are dying out to a great extent. He also pointed out several ways in which precautions could be taken against the spread of any disease, and showed the good that had been done by the adoption of these precautions, and paid high tribute to the country physicians. The audience was not large, but those present listened with profound attention to Dr. McCormick's remarks.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Wm. Meteer, of Hutchison, sold a suckling mule to Thomas McClintock & Sons for $95.

—John Burris, of Little Rock, sold 24 head of 900-lb heifers for May and June delivery to Ed. Hon. the Mt. Sterling butcher, at $4.85.

—John Wagers sold to Sweeney Morgan 180 acres of land lying near Point Leavell, Garrard county, for $12,000. This is about the average price being paid for land in that section.

—Two hundred million acres of land will be plowed this year in the United States and about 9,000,000 plows are on the farms to do the work. The capital invested in plows alone represents $80,000,000.

—W. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, bought of Aylette Buckner sixty-five 1,400 pound cattle at $4.80, which he shipped to New York Saturday night. Mr. McIntyre also shipped to Cincinnati 3 car loads of hogs costing 5 to 6 cents per pound.

—Thos. McClintock & Sons sold to the city of Paris 3 extra good work mules for $525, and bought of D. L. Robbins a 3-year-old saddle horse for $200. The above received last week 35,000 pounds of wool costing from 25 to 31 cents per pound.

—An expert Irish potato grower, living in Ohio, has found that by planting his potatoes in rows only two feet apart he has better success and larger yields than when planted in rows three feet apart. His argument is that the vines will be so close together that they will shade the land thus prevent the loss of moisture from the soil.

—J. Wesley Hawkins left Saturday with a shipment of 80 head of mules for San Juan, Porto Rico. The consignment was the property of Harbison & Co., of Lexington, and represented a value of $15,000. The mules will be used in the cultivation of sugar and coffee and is the first shipment from Kentucky for that purpose, demonstrating the fact that Blue Grass stock of all kinds is taking the lead everywhere. Mr. Hawkins will be gone for more than a month, and will visit various industries on the island.

Elks Cafe Lunch Department.

The Elks' Cafe, during the Conclave, will open a first-class lunch department in their room adjoining the Elks' Bar, and will be open to the public day and night.

Badly Hurt.

W. G. Shropshire, the expert handler of horses, who lives on Mt. Airy, came near meeting with a fatal accident on the street in front of the court house, Friday. He was riding a very spirited horse when the animal reared and fell to the street, catching Mr. Shropshire under him. His foot caught in the stirrup and the horse started to run down the street, and but for the prompt action of Mr. John Brennan in catching the horse Shropshire would have no doubt been dragged to death. He received a severe cut in the head and was otherwise considerably bruised. He is improving.

Bourbon College Commencement

The Bourbon College Commencement exercises were held Thursday evening at the Christian Church, before a large and cultured audience. The four young lady graduates were Misses Kate Bastin, Pittsburg, Ky., Maud Leach, Edna Elliott, of county, and Georgia Rion, of this city. The housekeeping medal was awarded to Misses Margaret Morris, Sallie Adair, Lillian Mason and Louise Jacoby. Miss Lizzie Clay Stone received the medal for music. This has been a prosperous year for this school and with the same able faculty for next term we predict the school will open with a large increase in attendance.

I will have on hand a fine lot of flowers for the Conclave.
JO S. VARDEN.

Body Found in Creek.

John Howe, aged about fifty years, was found dead in Elkhorn river, near the Bourbon bridge in Scott county, on the outskirts of Georgetown. Recently his mind has not been clear, and he has been closely watched. He escaped the vigilance of his children, jumped through a window, and could not be found until his body was located.

The Paris Business College

Is now being organized by Prof. Lippard, of Cincinnati, and will open the first of January. Prof. Lippard has had a large experience in training young men and women for good positions and placing them in same, and every young person possible should enter at the opening. Nothing pays better than a business education. Positions secured for all graduates, and Prof. Lippard has calls for more graduates than he can furnish.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." When You Clean House

Let us help you make your home prettier, more cheerful and more attractive than it has ever been.

Don't keep the old, dismal, delapidated furniture and the broken, damaged pieces, sell them to the second-hand man.

There's better economy and far greater satisfaction in buying new things; and you can buy here, really desirable home furnishings at small cost, and on easy payment plan.

We just received a car load of Iron Beds a few days ago and they must be sold in the next 30 days.

If you are looking for real bargains, now is the time and this is the place to get them. Ice Boxes, Boxes, Refrigerators and White Mountain Freezers now on sale. Don't fail to come in and see them before you buy. Credit extended to the poor as well as the rich.

Eleven Sacrificed by Fiends.

A horrible tragedy, almost incredible in its brutality, occurred at Pensacola, Fla., this week, when an entire family consisting of husband, wife and nine children, was murdered in cold blood by fiends who made good their escape. A torch was applied to the house after the murder, and the bodies of several of the children were consumed.

LUMINOUS TREES.

Among freaks of nature in trees there stands conspicuous one known as the Asiatic star tree. It is tall, growing to a height of from 60 to 80 feet, while from the ground up to a distance of about 40 feet the trunk is perfectly bare. From that point there springs a number of tangled limbs which shoot out clusters of long, pointed leaves, and it is these, grouped together, that emit at night a clear phosphorescent light. This gives the tree a spectral appearance, and is very deceiving to travelers who frequently mistake the glow for an illuminated window of a house. The light is not brilliant, but is of sufficient strength to allow of a newspaper being read by it. It does not flicker, but glows steadily from sunset until day break.

The average farmer is afraid of two things: A woman and a three-card monte man.

PET BEES KILLED PASTOR.

Aged Divine Stung to Death By Honey-makers He Loved.

Stung to death by a swarm of bees which had been his special pride and care, was the fate of the Rev. Thomas Carlton, aged 70 years, a Methodist divine, of Memphis, Tenn. The aged minister was working about the hives as usual when the bees attacked him. His wife and servants, hearing his cries of pain, rushed to his assistance but found his lifeless body when they reached the spot. The Rev. T. Carlton always tended to the hives himself and extracted the honey from them without apparently any difficulty.

World's Most Active Volcano.

Mount Sangay is the most active volcano in the world. It is situated in Ecuador, is 17,120 feet in height, and has been in constant activity since 1723. The sounds of its eruptions are sometimes heard in Quito, 150 miles distance, and once 267 reports were counted in one hour.

THE INGENUOUS JAP

Inclined to Stick Head Through Clew Panes of Glass.

Some of the institutions on Japanese railways are peculiar to that country. One of these is a smear of paint across the windows of a third class carriage. This is made necessary because thousands of native travelers in Japan, accustomed to only paper walls for letting in light, have no knowledge of glass. Its utter transparency leads them to believe that the window is simply a hole in the side of the car. With painful results many natives have stupidly attempted to stick their heads through the glass. For a long time ambulances from receiving hospital had to meet nearly every train arriving in Japanese cities, and hence the streak of paint is a warning to the Oriental farmer from the back country that there is something more than atmosphere in the window.

Animals That Don't Drink.

There are some animals which never drink; for instance, the llamas, of Patagonia, and certain gazelles of the far east. A number of snakes, lizards, and other reptiles live in places devoid of water. A bat, of western America, inhabits waterless plains. In parts of Lozere, France, there are heads of cows and goats which hardly ever drink, and yet produce the milk for Roquefort cheese.

NO CONTEST

But a Plain Business Proposition.

Chance to Make $50 in Gold.

Every Young Lady in Bourbon Eligible.

People are always crying "keep the money at home," and to help carry out this motto the Bourbon News is going to make a plain business proposition to the young ladies of Bourbon county, whereby they can take a trip to any place they desire and at the same time assist in pushing a home enterprise along without any scrambling contest whatever and also at the same time everybody will get value received for their investment. This is no contest where there will be any disappointments. No contest where some young lady will run in the lead until the last minute and then the one who has been running last to come in and defeat her by having her friends to buy enough coupons or subscribe for enough papers, to make her win over the one that has led throughout the contest. Our proposition is no fake, but simply a plain business proposition and is as follows: Any young lady of Bourbon county who will bring to the Bourbon News office on or before July 15th, 1906, 75 cash subscribers we will give her $50 in gold, to be used as she likes.

Any old subscriber who is in arrears and pays up to date and for one year in advance to any of the young ladies who accept our offer will be counted in their list of new ones.

This proposition is open to every young lady in the county, and just as soon as you hand in the seventy-five names with the cash subscriptions, the $50 in gold will be handed to you.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

Olympian Springs.

This famous health and pleasure resort will open for the season 1906, June 1st. These Springs are located twenty minutes drive over a good turnpike from Olympia, a station on the C. and O. railroad in Bath County, Kentucky, fifty miles east of Lexington, Kentucky, from which latter place three daily railroad connections are made at Olympia, and every train is met by local livery service.

The management offers for the pleasure of its guests a newly furnished first-class, electric lighted hotel, fresh water and mineral baths, water cure for stomach trouble and rheumatism, unsurpassed in America, and bearing the test of one hundred years.

Indoors guests can enjoy cards, billiards, bowling, American box ball, dancing every week day night and music by a splendid orchestra, while out of doors they will find long, dry, shady walks, good livery service, boating, fishing, bathing and swimming in open lake, golf, tennis and tetherball. Rates reasonable. For further information write J. C. Shropshire, Superintendent Olympian Springs Company, Olympia, Bath county, Kentucky.

—The ball game Saturday afternoon between Georgetown College and M. M. I., on the grounds of the former, after much strapping and some fighting, resulted in a score of 8 to 6 in favor of M. M. I. The M. M. I. team drew out of the game at the close of the eighth inning on account of the rude conduct of the Georgetown team. The trouble was taken up by the Georgetown people in behalf of M. M. I. and a free for all fight in which about 50 prominent citizens took a hand. M. M. I. will play K. M. I. here Saturday, his game is looked forward to with much interest.

—Mrs. S. M. Allen received a telegram Saturday afternoon announcing the tragic death of her cousin, Miss Bessie K. Ingelman, of Stanford. Miss Ingelman was crossing the railroad track about 2 o'clock in the afternoon in front of the home of Mr. Ephram Woods, the father of Mrs. Allen, when she was struck by a passenger train and killed instantly. Owing to the mangled condition of the body it was necessary to bury her Sunday morning. Miss Ingelman has visited here and has many friends who will learn with sincere sorrow of her tragic end. About two years ago her mother and Miss Susan Woods, when crossing the railroad track in the same place, were struck in a similar manner, sustaining serious injuries. Mrs. Allen left on the 5.15 train for the bereaved home.

BROWER'S

Our Department of Fine Arts

We have long recognized the need of a studio in Central Kentucky—that displayed nothing but tasteful, quietly pleasing objects that possess artistic merit. Goods that are distinctive—and pleasing for that reason.

Some time ago we added to our store a department of just this sort. In it one finds excellent pictures in all recognized processes of Art—Brasses, Electroliers and Lamps of pleasing designs, Colonial Mirrors, Candelabras with old-fashioned glass prisms. In short, we have a department in which one can find articles that are a pleasure to give and receive as presents—that add an additional air of elegance and refinement to any room in which they are placed. You are cordially invited to call on us.

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SWIFT CHAMP, - EDITOR AND OWNER

A. J. Winters & Co., of this city, the enterprising new jewelry firm who have moved to their new quarters opposite the court house, have fitted up an optical room in their store for the convenience of those who call on Dr. C. H. Bowen, the optician.

Disorderly Conduct.

Ike Palmer, a "copper cullid" green" was fined $5 and costs yesterday by Judge Hinton for disorderly conduct. He got mad with his wife and broke up a few pieces of furniture.

Carried Concealed Weapons.

In Judge Hinton's Court, Cleveland Stafford was fined $37.50 and given fifteen days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. Chief of Police Hill arrested him on a warrant sent from Carlisle, charging him with discharging fire arms in the city limits, and found a gun in his pocket about as long as your arm.

For Your Lunches.

Plenty of pickles, olives, sardines, can salmon, devil ham, chix loaf, lunch tongue, pork and beans.

Receives Fatal Kick.

M. K. Frederick, of Lexington, an auctioneer, who was assisting in the usual court day sales at Georgetown yesterday afternoon, was kicked by a horse he was offering for sale and it is feared he is fatally injured. The horse was known as a kicker, and had been traded three times during the day, the last man who got it putting it up at auction to get rid of it. As Mr. Frederick was calling the crowd about the horse and asking for a bid the animal made a vicious kick and struck him squarely in the face, knocking him senseless.

Forest Fires raging.

The forest fires in Northern Michigan have almost swept blank an area of 100 square miles. So far as known only four lives have been lost. It is impossible to tell at present what the property loss will be, but it is very heavy. Four towns have been wiped off the map, a dozen partly destroyed and five counties devastated by the flames.

Nothing Nicer.

Nothing nicer for breakfast than "Nabob" pancake flour and pure maple syrup. You buy it at V. K. Shipp's.

BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS.

Increase Attendance May Necessitate Extra Building.

At the regular meeting of the Paris School Board Thursday night teachers were elected for the white and colored schools for the term of 1906-7, beginning Monday, September 3.

Prof. Chapman, of Madisonville, Ky., was elected Superintendent and Prof. J. S. Johnson, Principal, at a former meeting of the Board, and the following subordinate teachers were elected Thursday night:

Miss Julia O'Brien, Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, Miss Mary Layton, Miss Jennie Kenney, Miss Lena Talbott, Miss Nellie Herriek, Miss Sallie Whaley, Miss Lizzie Lenihan and Mrs. Evaline Buck.

For the colored school the following teachers were elected:

Mrs. Mary E. Graves, Principal, Maggie Gee, Ellims Towles, James E. Baker, Wm. H. Evans, Maggie Freeman and Serena Booth.

A discussion by the board revealed that the recent school census of the city of Paris registers an increase of more than 100 white children of school age, and as the present school building in use by the whites was already congested, and even the attic pressed into use, additional room is an immediate necessity. The Board decided to ask the City Council to make provision for more room by an extra building or an addition to the old one, and there is no doubt the Council will grant the request as this is a question bound to be attended to.

Card of Thanks.

We want to thank all those who have decorated their houses in such a liberal manner, especially do we appreciate the enterprise and interest taken by Mayor James O'Brien, in having the City Hall and Library decorated, and having the beautiful American flags put up at the entrance of every cross street.

LOST TO LEXINGTON FRIDAY

But Paris Evened Up by Winning Exciting Game Sunday.

Paris lost her first game of the season Friday after making a good start. Lexington, their old time rivals, was the opposing team, and won out after an uphill fight. Moeller, the regular catcher for Paris, was out of the game and weakened the team. The score was 11 to 4 in favor of Lexington.

Before a crowd of about 400 people, Paris won Sunday afternoon in the last half of the ninth inning, defeating the All-Kentuckians, of Covington, by a score of 6 to 5, in the most exciting game ever witnessed on the local grounds. With one run needed to tie the score and two to win, Betscher stepped to the plate and swatted the first ball pitched for a two-bagger to right field. Darringer followed with a clean single to center, scoring Betscher. McBriar sacrificed, Darringer going to third. Moeller fouled at the plate and on the play Darringer scored the winning run. Both pitchers were on their mettle. Werner for the visitors, injured his foot in the seventh and retired in favor of Ducklo. Swearingin, who twirled for Paris, was in excellent form, having both speed and control at critical times. He struck out twelve men.

THE HUMAN WIRE

Tells of Experience in Remarkable Telephone Experiment.

"For the experimental purposes," said a scientist, "I once allowed my body to be used as a telephone." He shook his head sadly. "No more. Never again," he said.

"The moment I grasped in either hand the broken ends of the wire, I felt a severe shock and groaned aloud. The speakers were three miles apart. That first shock was nothing beside the one which followed the start of their conversation. Each syllable cut through my vitals like a knife. With a grunt of agony I fell to the ground, and, as the talk continued to penetrate me, my muscles jumped and wriggled like maddened snakes. There were pins in my chest and arms, a burning prickling sensation in my legs, and sharp, dagger-like flashes of a neuralgic nature shooting through my head.

I couldn't let go. There I lay in the dust, writhing and jumping like a beheaded chicken, and the jovial conversation for my friends kept right on passing through me.

"The experiment was a complete success, but if you ever participate in a similar experiment be one of the talkers. Don't be the human wire."

Feast and Furies.

The biggest thing that Lexington will ever have in the Amusement line is "Feast and Furies," which will be presented in that city Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 31st, and June 1st and 2nd.

Feast and Furies is something entirely novel and unique, nothing like it has ever been seen before, and those who attend the performance to be given in Lexington have a great surprise in store for them. This gigantic organization contains more than five hundred people who are required in the presentation of this gigantic performance.

The opening scene is a modern city in which very odd life is depicted. The performance appears to the vast audience as though it were in real life. There are over half a hundred high class vaudeville acts. The performance ends with a realistic scene in which the city is entirely bordered by flames in full view of the audience, in which three fire companies have to extinguish the flames. There is a company of militia, a squad of cavalry, two fire departments and a battalion of police. It also carries a well-trained ballet of one hundred people.

Feast and Furies has been organized upon a gigantic scale and the first performance will be given in Lexington upon the dates named above. Lexington will be the smallest city that this attraction will play. Excursions and special have been arranged over all the roads coming into Lexington for the performance.

Time flies so fast that about ten minutes after the world discovers a man is a corner the discovery is made that he is a has-been.

The Prince of Wugwumps.

There has just passed away a man who may be styled "The Prince of Wugwumps." Coming to this country when it was engaged in the exciting controversies preceding the Civil War, Carl Schurz saw things first from the attitude of the disinterested spectator; then formed conclusions independent of the partisanship carried in those times to the extreme. Allaying himself with the Republican party on general principles, he still maintained his independence to a degree that he voted as he chose. Later elevated in its councils, he had the audacity to attempt to bring that party to his way of thinking, regarding not only principles but men.

His independence of party principles and men can be no better illustrated than by his opposition to James G. Blaine when he aspired for the presidency, and Blaine's stigmatizing him the man without a country had a more damaging effect upon Blaine than upon Schurz.

Throughout Carl Schurz's long career he was always aggressive in his opposition of conditions and men that he did not regard as right. As early as 1873 he pitched into the "old gang" that ruled Philadelphia and Pennsylvania. Moving to the West he began to advocate principles and doctrine that did much toward depriving Grant of his third term, although they did not succeed in electing Horace Greely. In 1884 he came out boldly and strongly against the Republican platform and its candidate, making vigorous speeches favoring Grover Cleveland. While he was in the cabinet during Hayes' administration he was the foremost advocate of Civil Service Reform association. In politics Carl Schurz, although holding opinions of his own, advocated only what he conscientiously believed to be for the best interests of the country, and, although, he did not succeed immediately in bringing about reforms desired, he had the satisfaction of seeing some of them ultimately put into operation.

As independent as he was in politics, as brave as he was a soldier. At the battle of Bull Run and in succeeding engagements as major general in the Eleventh army corps he ably seconded the efforts of his old commander, Franz Sigel. And as zealous in promoting this country's interests as he always was at home, he was even more so in the diplomatic posts that he filled, his services as a diplomat ranking well with those of any other foreign representative of this country. So that "The Prince of Wugwumps" measured in every way, was a man useful to his adopted country which will ever hold him in grateful remembrance.

Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous. In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstacle to the bearing of children has been found to be a surgical character, but easily removable by painless operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where child should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapsus, inflammation and debility, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for woman's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

BRIDGE WHIST DAMNABLE

Clergyman Says Game is Wrecking Many Homes.

"Bridge whist is the most damnable thing on the face of the earth," is the opinion of the Rev. W. W. Weeks, pastor of the Highland Baptist church at Springfield, Mass., and a leader of the New England councils of his denomination. Dr. Weeks' remark caused a sensation at the meeting of Hampden District Sunday School association the other day. "Worldliness and spirituality are so mixed in most church members that the members themselves scarcely are able to distinguish between them," said Dr. Weeks. Dr. Weeks' unqualified criticism of bridge presumably had its origin in stories of wide circulation relative to amounts of money lost at bridge by Springfield society women.

Speakers in Christian Endeavor Societies are said to have instanced Springfield men who have been forced into bankruptcy in order to pay the debts of honor contracted by their wives at the bridge tables.

Dr. Weeks, in closing his attack upon bridge ironically suggested that in view of the support the game was receiving from church members it would be appropriate to open bridge whist parties with prayer.

RICHEST GIRL TO WED.

Bertha Krupp, Whose Income is $6,600 a Day, to Take a Husband.

Bertha Krupp, the richest girl in the world, owner of the great gun works which her father established at Essen, Germany, is soon to be married. The name of the young man is being kept a secret. Some say he is a prince, others say that he is only a poor physician.

Miss Krupp, who holds nearly all of the $40,000,000 capital stock of the great gun works, has an income of $2,400,000 a year—about $6,600 a day. When her mother dies Bertha and her younger sister, Barbara, will divide $75,000,000 more between them, in stocks bonds and property, including iron and coal mines in Westphalia and Spain. Bertha owns the whole town of Essen.

Miss Krupp is good looking, religious unassuming and dresses plainly. She personally attends to the beautiful little Florentine garden her late father laid out for her. She had had an orchid house constructed, and she has collected rare floral specimens from England and South America.

She leads a somewhat retired life within the enclosure of the splendid Villa Hugel estate, near Essen. She and her mother sometimes visit Florence or the Italian lakes, but her movements are conjecturally veiled in mystery. It has been conjectured that she is afraid of kidnapping. She was reported two years ago as engaged to the son of a rich Cologne banker.

Think of it!

When you consider breeding, individuality, and the kind of colts he gets, Sunland Bourbon's fee is lower than any stallion we know of.

If you want a fine team, a good road horse, a high actor, all having speed breed your mare to Sunland Bourbon. It is well-known he gets the above kind.

Sunland Bourbon made quite a reputation last year as a great road horse, and those who saw him go now know that his record is no measure of his speed.

Rate Bill Passes Senate.

The Senate passed the Railroad Rate Bill after seventy day of almost continuous deliberation. The bill passed by the practically unanimous vote of 71 to 3, the negative votes being cast by Senators Foraker, Morgan and Pettus. In addition to passing the bill, the proceedings consisted in concluding the consideration of the amendments as such and the delivery of a number of speeches. The only amendment adopted was the one by Senator Teller, eliminating the words "in its judgment" from the power given to the Interstate Commerce commission to fix rates.

SAME CELL.

He Occupied So Long is Again the Home of Caleb Powers.

Caleb Powers, to be tried the fourth time for the murder of William Goebel, arrived at Georgetown Saturday in charge of Deputy United States Marshal Emmett Orr. The prisoner was delivered to Jailer Finley and given his old quarters on the left side of the steel cage, where six years ago he had for companions Henry Youtsey, Captain John Davis and Harlan Whitaker, then held for the same offense.

Powers appeared resigned to his fate, and was complimentary in his remarks about the people whose duty it has been to watch over him. He said he felt at home in the Georgetown jail, since it was here that he began the course of physical culture and study which has kept him up so well during his long confinement.

Casey's Revenge.

By Grantland Rice in Cleveland News.

There were saddened hearts in Mudville for a week or even more. There were muttered oaths and curses—every fan in town was "sore." "Just think," said one, "how soft its looked with Casey at the bat. And then to think he'd go and spring a bush league trick like that!"

All his past fame was forgotten—he was now a hopeless "shine." They called him "Strike-out Casey" from the Mayor down the line. And as he came to bat each day his bosom heaved a sigh. While a look of hopeless fury shone in mighty Casey's eye.

He pondered in the days gone by that he had been their King. That when he strolled up to the plate they made the welkin ring; But now his nerve had vanished—for when he heard them hoot, He "fanned" or "popped out" daily, like some minor league recruit.

He soon began to sulk and loaf—his batting eye went lame; No home runs on the score card now were chalked against his name. The fans without exception gave the manager no peace, For one and all kept clamoring for Casey's quick release.

The Mudville squad began to slump—the team was in the air; Its playing went from bad to worse—nobody seemed to care. "Back to the woods with Casey!" was the cry from Rooters' Row. "Get someone who can hit the ball and let that big 'dub' go."

The lane is long, some one has said, that never turns again, And Fate, though fickle, often gives another chance to men; And Casey smiled—is rugged face no longer wore a frown—The pitcher who had started all the trouble came to town.

All Mudville had assembled—ten thousand fans had come To see the twirler who had put big Casey on the bum. And when he stepped into the box the multitudes went wild.

He doffed his cap in proud disdain, but Casey only smiled.

"Play ball!" the umpire's voice rang out, and then the game began, But in that throng of thousands there was not a single fan Who thought that Mudville had a chance, and, with the setting sun, Their hopes sank low—the rival team was leading "four to one."

The last half of the ninth came round, with no change in the score; But when the first man up hit safe the crowd began to roar.

The din increased—the echo of ten thousand shouts were heard When the pitcher hit the second and gave "four balls" to the third.

Three men on base—nobody out—three runs to tie the game! A triple meant the highest niche in Mudville's Hall of Fame; But here the rally ended and the gloom was deep as night, When the fourth one "fouled to catch" and the fifth "flew out to right."

A dismal groan in chorus came—a scowl was on each face— When Casey walked up, bat in hand, and slowly took his place. His bloodshot eye in fury gleamed—his teeth were clenched in hate; He gave his cap a vicious hook and pounded on the plate.

But fame is fleeting as the wind and glory fades away. There were no wild and woolly cheers—no glad acclaim this day; They hissed and groaned and hooted as they clamored, "Strike him out!" But Casey gave no outward sign that he had heard the shout.

The pitcher smiled and cut one loose—across the plate it sped— Another hiss, another groan, "STRIKE ONE!" the umpire said. Zip! Like a shot the second curve broke just below his knee— "STRIKE TWO!" the umpire roared aloud—but Casey made no plea.

No roasting for the umpire now—his was an easy lot; But here the pitcher twirled again—was that a rifle shot? A whack—a crack—and out through space the leather pellet flew—A blot against the distant sky—a speck against the blue.

Above the fence in center field, in rapid whirling flight, The sphere sailed on—the blot grew dim and then was lost to sight. Ten thousand hats were thrown in air—ten thousand threw a fit—But no one ever found the ball that mighty Casey hit.

Oh! somewhere in this favored land dark clouds may hide the sun, And somewhere bands no longer play and children have no fun; And somewhere, over blighted lives, there hangs a heavy pall; But Mudville hearts are happy now—FOR CASEY HIT THE BALL!

BOURBON CROPS.

Looks Bad For the Farmer if it Don't Rain Soon.

Early plowed corn fields are doing nicely, but late plowed fields have dried out thoroughly and the seed remains unspouted. Hemp, owing to dry weather, is coming up unevenly, and that which is through the ground is short.

The blue grass seed crop will be shorter than last year, which was about 40 per cent. of full crop. With two successive crops falling short of the general average should insure good prices for this crop. Considerable fear is felt for the tobacco crop. Farmers are huling water in an attempt to save their plants, which in most instances are far short of full supply. The young plants are scattering and being destroyed by a small black bug. Quite a number report their beds entirely destroyed.

Wheat, which has all along presented such favorable prospects for a big yield, is beginning to show the effects of the dry weather. Most fields of early planted wheat are at the point of heading, and unless rain comes shortly the crop will be depreciated both in quality and quantity. In brief, the situation is alarming and farmers are much discouraged.

A Year of Blood.

The year of 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. Kings' New Discovery for consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A FAMILY SAFEGUARD

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases.

Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere. 10¢ Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.
